

Clearway Signs 335 MW Power Purchase Agreement with Microsoft

April 28, 2025

Clearway's Mount Storm project to support Microsoft's carbon reduction goals

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Clearway Energy Group ("Clearway") has signed a long-term power purchase agreement (PPA) with Microsoft for the 335 megawatt (MW) Mount Storm wind farm located in Grant County, West Virginia. Mount Storm will support Microsoft's sustainability and decarbonization goals by generating carbon-free energy.

"Clearway is thrilled to announce our work with Microsoft on the Mount Storm project. We are proud to support the development of renewable energy and economic growth in the community," said Valerie Wooley, Senior Vice President of Origination at Clearway.

The Mount Storm project will be built with American-made equipment. In addition, the Mount Storm wind project will deliver significant investment to the community including millions of dollars in tax revenue, hundreds of construction jobs, as well as funding for community benefit programs.
